

Reducing 70% of backlog of complaints about nudity and vulgarity on television by simply removing them is not a feat to be proud of. The fact that there were so many complaints in the first place that could not be addressed in a timely manner indicates that the American people want LESS vulgarity and nudity on broadcast television already. Lessening the restrictions would be a travesty.

Please do NOT change the current broadcast indecency policies - but rather start enforcing them in a more timely manner.
