

Do not allow further vulgarity and frontal nudity on daytime airwaves. Already in prime time TV we have "sexual situations" which amount to soft pornography; do not add to the pornification of our culture by allowing so-called "non-sexual" nudity. If what you mean by that is nudity that does not involve a sexually themed scene, have you considered that any nudity has the potential to elicit a sexual response, and in that way would be considered "sexual nudity"? Do not allow this on public television.
