

I am strongly opposed to the proposed changes to ease up on enforcing existing decency standards for broadcast television and radio by only punishing the deliberate and repetitive use of profanity and nudity. I ask that you deny the proposal and begin to enforce a stricter standard and guideline.