

I strongly oppose allowing additional violence, nudity and the use of violent language such as the F word on prime time TV. A family should feel safe turning on their TV in the evenings without the threat of these images being seen by kids.

I am appalled and offended at what is already allowed and wish it would go back to the days when TV was safe to watch!