

Please DO NOT ease up on enforcing existing decency standards for broadcast television and radio by only punishing the deliberate and repetitive use of profanity and nudity.

I do not want to have the language and images brought into my home, car, etc., that this change could allow and for the chance that my children might see such vulgarity.

Thank you.