

I urge you to enforce present laws against indecency on the public waves. If you cannot control the airwaves, then give us the right to choose and pay for the channels that we want to watch. That is only fair. Give us the right to choose and pay for those channels that respect decency. We don't have to subsidize trash whose only purpose is to demean society. I am doing this for my grandchildren.

Thank you.