

I strongly oppose allowing additional violence, nudity and the use of violent language such as the F word on prime time TV. A family should feel safe turning on their TV in the evenings without the threat of these images being seen by kids.