

No! to relaxation of current standards. There is enough filth already without a "relaxation of standards". Let those who want filthy dirty language and nudity subscribe to "premium" channels or seek it out in other media. Don't force it into the public airways and network television for our children to consume by accident. Not for my children. Not for my grandchildren. Free speech is not in danger by enforcing basic decency on the public airways.