

It has come to my attention that the FCC is considering allowing nudity and increasing the number of profane words on television and radio. Our household strongly objects to increased profanity on tv and radio and nudity on television. Thank you for considering our concerns.