

My family and I, strongly object to allowing the use of profanity and nudity on television. Our great Nation use to have morals and principles and we as a nation are destroying these morals and principles by allowing such.