

Please do not relax the standards regarding profanity and nudity. Children will be watching this type of programming and they do not need to be bombarded with this.

Changing the standards will not serve the public interest and will only further break down the moral values at a younger age.

The first amendment allows free speech, yet you cannot yell fire in a crowded theater.