

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCCs authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

It is already hard to watch TV with children at anytime of day with out being slammed in the face with erectile disfunction commercials. Why is this kind of television not censored anymore?

Please do not allow this to happen.
