

The world is changing so fast, and becoming absolutely wicked from the things that are on the internet and TV. Please, please help us get more good things, and prevent the bad things. All the things happening in our society today are from relaxed standards. We need to get back to a moral society. Thanks so much for this chance to state my opinion.