

Please do not relax the current standards of the FCC regarding expletives and nudity! We have six young children and do not want to have the possibility of them being exposed to such things as the F-word or female frontal nudity on television. Please maintain some sense of decency and do not enact the proposed changes that would allow such things on the television or radio!

Sincerely,
Marcina Layton