

the payphone in west duluth(duluth mn) at out kmart ahs no dial tone nor no card identifying which entity is responsible fior its repairs a dn upkeep.i was just lucky i sawe a cab in the parking lot near the dollar store where i had been shopping as my packages were too big to carry.the operator said to put in coins and they kept dropping down into coin retrun slot whith no dail tone making this frustrating to me the consumer trying to use this device.i called a company from the local university and they suggested i contact the store.the kmart phone had no phone number or info card about making calls,etc.this si our only kmart as the othe one closed and was replaced by a crafts store.