

Please do not allow this profanity and nudity ruling to pass. Do not erode the morals of our country any farther. There are still many good citizens left in this country. Jesus would now approve of what is allowed on TV now(and neither do a lot of other people.) and I do not mean only Christians. Most is not proper for children now!