

Concerning the proposed act to allow the presence of substantial nudity and indecency on public airwaves, I wholly and fervently reject. Having such standards set in place would cause great harm to youths in America by exposing them to sexual and verbal indecency which damages health in their developing minds and negatively affects their important life decision making ability and impedes on the rights of the American people to refuse such currently illegal (though unenforced) vulgarity to come into their homes.