

Public air waves have a responsibility to the general public to air content suitable for all audiences. Nudity and obscene language is NOT suitable for all audiences. Please continue to uphold the standards that have been in place. In fact, being even more strict -raising the standards - would be even better. Our children - America's children - are exposed to too much, already, producing a culture that adverse to America and the American way of life.