

Please keep daytime and prime time TV clean and of the highest moral standards. Our country is declining in almost every possible way as it is. Can't anything be innocent and good anymore? Why does every facet of our society have to be tainted with immorality?