

The proposal to relax decency standards is unacceptable. Pornography and its ilk are responsible for significant deterioration in community standards. Family movies are demonstrably more profitable yet more and more R rated films are made. Why? The same ethics - and lack thereof - apply to television. The Federal government should not lower the standards. They should be upheld or strengthened.