

I am appalled that you think it's okay to allow brief use of the f-word and female frontal nudity. Really!! It was bad enough when "milder" profanity was allowed. It is offensive and will prevent my husband and I from watching tv. It's a slippery slope that we will not to go down. I have many, many friends and family members who feel the same way. Please reconsider your proposal and don't travel further down that unnecessary path.
