

Broadcasting has a huge effect on our society, and broadcasters must show some respect and decency. I do not want to be subjected to filthy and disrespectful language and scenes in my own home while trying to find some good entertainment, information, or news.

Because of this exposure to crude language, etc., I may let a swear word slip from my lips at times, but I NEVER allow that to happen in the presence of other people. If I can control myself, so can people who are on TV and radio and Internet.

If it is wrong and problematic for someone to use dirty language or to expose his or her body in public on a habitual basis, it is wrong each and every time.

Producers and broadcasters are obviously doing this on purpose, aggressively trying to infiltrate our homes with nasty ideas and violent and disrespectful living. We must stand up to them and firmly prohibit these degrading influences through our government.
