

Please do not relax the standards of decency on the public media!!!

Our country has become too lax already by throwing morality out the window!