

I think that the FCC should keep the airwaves clean and pure. There is no reason that vulgure words should be heard or viewing of images should be seen during prime time. This type of junk doesn't need to be aired on TV or the radio. We need to improve what is coming from our TV and radio.
Thank you