

Please do NOT lower our standards on decency. Those who wish to view nudity and hear F-bombs can do so by viewing paid programs, DVDs and other media. There are plenty of avenues for them. Those who do NOT wish to be subject to this unwanted bombardment will no longer be able to find channels void of the filth. Where is our freedom? The FCC needs STRONGER STANDARDS on decency, if anything! I do not want my children or myself to be exposed to this.
