

I completely oppose the current proposal that the FCC drop the ban of the "f" and "s" words on tv programming, especially during times that children are watching. And children have access to tv at all times. I also very much oppose allowing frontal female nudity during these hours or at any time. Please consider the long range effects of such policies and please keep the standards higher than this that is proposed.