

It would be much better for people of conscient to have the restrictions on language tightened rather than loosened. Language and its use define our nation and the integrity of our appeal "In God We Trust".

I was born into a free country where liberty was exercised under law and people were sensitive to the effects their words had on each other and society as a whole.

Freedom of speech is not a license to filth.