

I feel that the proposal to loosen regulations would be detrimental to our children and our culture at large. With so many places to find this type of thing the internet, we do not need it available on our television as well. It delves into a violation of personal rights to have such things as nudity thrust upon viewers who otherwise would not want to see that sort of thing.