

As a mother and grandma, I am very against this change - we need to keep decency in our tv programs. There is already too much vulgarity in what is available. If anything our programs need to be cleaned up. Our precious youth do not need to be pounded with that garbage.