

I am against the allowance of the "f word" and female frontal nudity on television. As a mother of four children, I feel that these changes would greatly impact my family in a negative way. It would negatively impact families across the country. We need to uphold our standards as a nation, and this includes our television programming. Don't make these changes and degrade the people of this great country. Be better than that.