

PLEASE do not allow the use of F-words and female frontal nudity on prime-time television. TV has already gotten worse over the years; we don't need our young children exposed to such awful language and basic pornography. Would you want your young children exposed to this type of nonsense? Please think about what this would do to our country. Don't allow this to go through!