

I do NOT agree with the proposed changes to allow nudity and curse words, specifically the F word, during prime time television. I feel it is inappropriate for children to view these things. It is demoralizing and does not uplift or promote goodness. I seriously hope that these changes do not take effect. Thanks!