

I would like to let my opinion be known about what is allowed to be shown on public television. I am opposed to lowering the current standard to allow the use of the f word and full nudity. In fact, I think the standard is not high enough as it currently exists and that there is already too much inappropriate language and sex/nudity on television. I don't want to see or hear these offensive things and I especially do not want my children to see or hear them. Morality in our country is low enough already, do we really want it to drop lower, because that is what will happen if you drop the standard on public television. Let's stick with good wholesome entertainment in our country--we will be blessed for it!
