

Please don't relax the rules! It's already hard enough to keep kids and adults away from profanity and nudity on the Internet. Adding it on the TV as well will make it almost impossible. This would make me consider getting rid of TV all together. There are some things that you should have to CHOOSE to see/hear. These things shouldn't be forced upon you. Thank you.