

I am against allowing additional swear words and frontal nudity on prime time. My children are awake during these hours and I'm aghast that this could be exposed to them. There needs to be NO changes to the current decency standards in this direction.