

Altering the current standards to allow more profanity and nudity in television is completely unnecessary. Please don't fall prey to the lowered morals of "Hollywood". TV is already risky for kids and those with high morals--please don't make it worse.