

Extreme profanity and frontal nudity should never be accepted in public channels. It will deeply affect our children and youth and therefore our future. Exposure to such low standards will only keep the next generation's sights low and never lift us to the future we hope for.

Plus whoever is pushing this agenda is an idiot. :) Thank you for your time.