

I am not ok with nudity or hearing the f word on primetime television. I do not have children of my own, but personally would not like to hear or see those things in my home. I spend a lot of time watching TV, and that would drastically decrease if these things were allowed to be shown.