

Please do not lower standards for prime time television. Our country is on a downward spiral. This would only further hurt our families and children