

I WILL NOT stand for allowing more relaxed decency standard on broadcast television. How is it OK for my children to be able to see a naked woman or hear profane language? It is NOT OK!!!! I think the standards are already relaxed enough. I already find myself telling my kids "that was a bad word, we don't say that" while watching shows that should be family appropriate. We will not be watching anymore television if the decency standards are relaxed!