

I do not approve of the FCC allowing the F-word and femal frontal nudity on public television - ESPECIALLY when my children may be watching. This is not appropriate!!! My children are young and sensitive and should not be exposed to this. If these decency standards are relaxed - my family and I will not be watching or supporting any television broadcasting ever again.