

I am not okay with even the consideration of relaxing the decency standards that govern nudity and profanity on broadcast television. Viewing and hearing these things on television is inappropriate and something that not just my kids but also my husband and myself disagree with completely. You should be able to sit down and watch something without feeling violated afterward. Entertainment should be about being uplifted and entertained. Those things are not necessary in providing entertainment. Please reject this proposal!