

The family is the backbone of society and as such should be protected from nudity and profanity. I am not in agreement with the proposed changes which may promote degradation of the existing standards. Furthermore, I am in favor of stricter decency standards as well as full support for enforcing them.