

I am completely opposed to lowering TV standards to include the F bomb and female nudity. It's not just that I don't want me kids to see and hear it - I don't want to, either, and I know a lot of others who feel the same way.

Please maintain the current policy.