

I am writing to ask that we keep the current decency standards not allowing strong sexual content, including nudity, the F word, and other bad language and sexual content to be allowed during prime time when children are watching.

There should be standards upheld to protect families and children.

Thank-you!

Kathy Ashcraft