

I want to voice my opinion on keeping language and nudity standards from deteriorating on prime time television. I know many people who feel the same way. Would rather cancel all television programs than to risk veiwing or having my children happen upon it.