

Please reconsider the current proposed change to lift the ban on radio and TV networks regarding use of vulgarity, such as the F word, and allowing portrayal of frontal female nudity. There is no reason to infiltrate the public with such things as those that degrade others.