

Please reconsider the choice to allow some frontal nudity and use of the F-word in prime time television.

Prime time is already too crass for me to watch with my family. If these changes are made, I won't be watching it, either. I won't be the only one. There are myriad outlets for use of these entertainment devices. Network television isn't one of them.