

To whom it may concern,

I am disturbed at the idea of there being even more filth on television; nudity, and abrasive cuss words. It's offensive and not necessary. There is already too much trash on tv and it's nauseating. Please help protect the decency, and moral standards of the family. Our nation is already crumbling, and the family disintegrating, because of the moral decay from the influence of bad TV, movies, music, pornography, violence, hate, and bad video games. Do not add to it. Please, please hear the voice of those who wish to protect their families from this filth. These things DO play a part in destroying families, and ultimately society. I've seen it first hand in my own life, as well as countless others lives.

Thank you for your time.
