

I would sincerely appreciate it if the FCC would please keep the current Indecency Enforcement law for the protection of childrens' viewing from harm of inappropriate behavior and character and for adults who have no interest in seeing or hearing inappropriate scenes or words on television.

Thank you so very much!